

MONTERRA

NC CONSTRUCTION

BUILT ON TRUST. BUILT TO LAST.

Project Specifications:

This Monterra home, designed by renowned Monterey architect Eric Miller, was built by none other than NC Construction, the architect's chosen builder for his personal residence. The 6,880 sq ft residence in Monterra, Monterey, features a Mediterranean-inspired design with a modern touch.

Building this home in Monterra offered us the opportunity to bring refined architectural visions to life, with each detail tailored to reflect its residents' high standards and preferences. From intricate stonework to custom cabinetry and luxurious finishes, our team ensures every aspect is crafted with precision and artistry.
